Special for December:

"John Lennon - His Words and Music"
TWO GREAT SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR DECEMBER

☆☆ JIM MORRISON

On Sunday night, Dec. 6th, at 6:30 p.m., Student Stereo proudly presents “Jim Morrison, Artist in Hell,” a 4 hour journey through the words and music of the Lizard King. Produced by Clare Spark of radio station KPFK in California, this tribute to the lead singer and lyricist of the Doors spans his early days in UCLA film school to his death in France in 1970.

JOHN LENNON ☆☆

December 8th marks the first anniversary of the death of John Lennon. To commemorate this, Student Stereo will broadcast a 2 hour special program entitled “John Lennon, His Words and Music.” To say John Lennon made a profound impact on young adults everywhere is an understatement. Please be listening on Tuesday, Dec. 8th at 6:30 p.m. for this very special program.

... and listen to these nightly features presented each week from 6-6:30 p.m.:

SUNDAY - Pacifica Week in Review
A weekly reprise of the top stories received from Pacifica, the in-depth alternative news service.

MONDAY - Under the Double Eagle
Each week the Wahoo Kid explores a different genre of American music.

TUESDAY - Conversations
Interviews with local experts on holistic nutrition, nighttime radio, alien space invasions and more.

WEDNESDAY - Sportsline
A weekly sports magazine hosted by Paul Stricker and Chris Olson covering Vandal, national college and professional sports.

THURSDAY - The Senate Show
ASUI Senators discuss current issues facing the University and are available for your phone-in questions.

FRIDAY - This Year’s Vinyl
A 30-minute sampling of the latest offerings from the music industry - mixing the mainstream and the esoteric.
