SPRING FEVER

It's a feeling we all get this time of year. The days are longer, the sun warmer and the rivers rising. Spring is a time for new life and here at KUOI we're feeling like a technically born-again radio station. New amplification equipment, turntables, and a new production mixer have been installed and KUOI has a new, clean sound that has all of us (and we hope you) grinning in a big way. Thanks again to the UI student body for helping to upgrade the station. All of us will benefit from your willingness to support the station. We will also be purchasing some other new equipment with the money remaining from the KUOI benefit last semester: New headphones, cable and test equipment will be part of that package. Again, thanks to all who made that fundraiser possible.

Speaking of fundraisers, we are going to have another one. Sometime in March you'll be hearing about the big event. It will take place in April and will be a celebration of a great year here at Student Hystereo. We hope to have great music lined up, along with videos and sensory stimuli to thrill even the coldest of characters. An on-air fundraiser will coincide with the big event. We want to be a community as well as university supported radio station. Support us, share your ideas and criticisms with us. You can influence the direction this station takes.

At the Beaux Arts Ball, Todd Duncan of the Crazy 8’s repeatedly plugged KUOI (with no prompting whatsoever from us, honest). Todd was trying to tell the crowd something about the critical role stations such as KUOI play in promoting new, independent bands such as the Crazy 8’s. Alternative radio stations are a precious commodity. Heck the Crazy 8’s. Listen to and think positively about KUOI. Ah, Spring...

P.S. We're going to broadcast the Renaissance Fair live in May!

Y.M.

NOON SHOW

At 12 noon, Monday through Friday, lunch breakin' audio with Ferdinand Marcos' arch rival, Greg Meyer. Music ranging from fusion to obscure older recordings with an occasional hit from Mr. T. Interviews on Wednesdays with campus and community personalities, tackling tough issues and flirting with the lighter side. Brown rice, organic vegies and a cookie.

KUOI Sports

Every Monday night at 7 Dave Tester and Kelly Henggler host SportsCenter, the most talked about live sports talk show in town. Dave and Kelly interview the athletes and coaches who are making sports headlines in the Palouse. Our two sports mentors also cover those sports stories and people who may not be on the front page yet, but...well, it makes for an interesting show. Every Monday night at 7.

Note: KUOI may be offering live coverage of UI baseball action this spring. Stay tuned for more information from sports director Mike Tatko.

SPECIAL DAILY PROGRAMS

Preview '86 — A new album played in its entirety each night at 10:05.

News — Campus, local, regional, national, and international news is presented Monday through Friday at 7:55 am, 12:55 pm, and 5:55 pm.

Stardate — Two minutes of timely astronomical topics aired at 8 am, noon, 6 pm, and 10 pm.

Community Announcements — We keep you informed on current happenings at the University and in the community. If you are a non-profit organization, be sure to contact us when you plan an event. Community Announcements can be heard daily at 7:02 am, 12:02 pm, and 5:02 pm.

Radio Billboard — Anything you want to buy, sell, give away or find; need a ride somewhere or if you’re offering one. Call 885-6392 and your item will air every day at 7:02 am, 12:02 pm, and 5:02 pm.

Sounds of Supper — 44 minutes of slightly off-balanced gastro-audio therapy. Generous helpings rock, funk, new wave, reggae and jazz are doled up every weekday night at 5 by world-renowned vinyl gourmet Fred Xing.

In the Public Interest — Nationally syndicated political commentary aired daily at 9 am and 3 pm.

The Muzik Monger — A live-music report for the Moscow/Pullman area. Updated weekly. The Muzik Monger is aired during the noon hour and the five o'clock hour on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Q-EE TREATS

INDEPENDENT MUSIC SHOW — During this hour, only those records and tapes which are produced by an independent label are aired. One cannot find pop, disco, or any modern mainstream form of music during this time. Appropriate local contributions are graciously accepted. IMS is hosted by James Donley, and airs at 6 pm every Wednesday.

REGGAE BEAT INTERNATIONAL — An hour of the finest in Jamaican music, interviews with prominent reggae artists and background on the history of reggae music. This nationally syndicated reggae show can be heard exclusively on Student Stereo every Thursday night at 6.

JAZZ BEAT — Brought to you from Boston’s Berklee College of Music, is one hour of the finest student recordings. Musical breadth heard in jazz beat includes mainstream jazz, swing, fusion, Latin, be-bop, blues, and more. Featured musicians are Berklee students, “stars of tomorrow.” Jazz beat can be heard every Wednesday at 7 pm.

OTHER SPECIAL MUSIC SHOWS — Electronic Explorations Sunday afternoons at 3. Blues Monday mornings at 8 and Tuesday nights at 6. Funk Monday nights at 8. And much more.

SPIN RADIO CONCERT SERIES — KUOI broadcasts Spin magazine’s radio concert series every other Tuesday of the month. These special programs blend live concert recordings with interview material from many of today’s hottest bands.

LIVE IN THE LOBBY — Broadcast every second Tuesday at 7 p.m., Live in the Lobby offers an hour of entertainment performed live in the station lobby. Any and all performers - musicians, poets, storytellers, dramatists/directors, etc. - who would like to put their creative talents on the air should contact Dave or Matt at the station. Endorsed by the Anti-Lip-Sync League.
KUOI STAFF STATS:

This is your radio station, use it! If there is something you would like to get on the air, COME BY THE STATION! We encourage any and all public service organizations to take advantage of our public service announcement program. Got something to sell? Need a ride somewhere? Lost your dog or your roommate? Then you should put a notice in "Radio Billboard," KUOI's free wireless bulletin board. If your group or organization has an upcoming event - social, sports, academic, or whatever - and you want it publicized, KUOI will air it on Community Announcements free of charge. Again, this is your station, a resource for you to use.

Matt Kitterman
Production Director

News is improving at KUOI-FM. We still offer you the latest three times a day - but our evening news is changing. We now offer you a totally revised newscast at 6 p.m. As the day changes, news happens. KUOI will be there with the latest for you.

It's going to be a great news semester on KUOI-FM
Paul F. Wuthrich
News Director

“I have to admit, one of the most influential factors that turned me from just - another Joe who listened to whatever happened to be in tune (and playing a familiar tune) on the ol’ VW factory transmitter-receiver into a demanding diehard KUOI junkie was . . . my staff position. After all it's my JOB to listen to (and peek at and scramble after and coax along . . .) the jocks and relay whatever instrumental messages I (and the rest of the staff) feel is appropriate. And, of course, vice versa, Damn, that does sound a bit heavy. But in any case, all that listening has really intrigued me into questioning my own tastes in music. See, KUOI will do a lot of things to you . . . it'll make you dance . . . or remind you of your eccentric aunt . . . or jerk you around like a rag doll . . . or induce you into an intense lust for Cheez-Nips . . . or have any number of intricately bizarre effects on your psyche. One thing it won't do is kiss your feet and serve you your daily starship fix on a platter. Fear not, though . . . we aim to entertain ya, everything from Bernadette's Mood Swings to Sal paradise's Rockabilly/Blues show. And as fresh as the rap that KUOI has gotten for playing that "weird stuff", remember: "There is no dark side of the moon . . . matter of fact, it's all dark."

Peace be with you,

Student Stereo
(The Alternative)

KUOI-FM
S.U.B.
University of Idaho
SOME SHOW DESCRIPTIONS

"I enjoy hearing and playing the newest music available. On Sunday from noon to 3 you will hear the most recent releases in rock & jazz fusion, some from bands you've heard of before, and some from bands we are both hearing for the first time. Neal Robinson, Sunday, noon to 3.

**

"Weekend Wind-Down" Classic Progressive Rock plus modern obscure stuff dissolving into New Age & jazz so you can crash with your radio on Sundays 10:45 P.M. - 2 A.M. with Leigh Robartes.

**

"The Turnip Broadcast System — "...the ringing grooves of change." - Tennyson. A menagerie of mostly amusing music with a minimum melancholy. All bases are covered at one time or another, with emphasis placed on new music. Requests. "This is just something to do until trout season." - Ted Turnip

**

"The entire blues gamut from early blues to today. Tuesday Blues from 6 to 10 with Mike.

**

"My show encompasses everything from frenetic Goof Pop to Roots to Neomod. Guaranteed to make your day, tune in on Fridays from 3 - 5 p.m. Miami Dave.

**

"Mostly progressive with occasional lapses into almost anything else, depending on mood. (After all, at 2 in the morning who really cares?)! Karla Manus 2 - 6, Mondays.

"Bringing you the best in a variety of musical moods and styles. Important: Nothing is Sacred! From Blues to Balalaika, comedy to classics, third world to another world - it's all played and it's all impulsive with an open request line for added flavor. Listen in on yodeling cowgirls, oldies but not moldy Rock "n" Roll or Jazz with razz. Cut the rug to polka, mambo, swing and boogie...

After all, Music IS the best way to travel, isn't it?" Prudence Muddypuddles, 6 - 10 Fridays.

"Sounds to induce an expression of normally repressed psychic elements." Panda Penosh 3 - 5 Thursdays.

"The Who, What, Where, Why, and How of the Sacred Cows. The who: The Sacred Cows are Ken and Drew, or Moo and Moo or Kate and Allie. All we know is that Greg Meyer ordered us to save all mankind i.e. - "Shut up and go away." What: we are disc jockeys. This is not to say that we straddle the new techies and envision ourselves at Belmont (although it has been done) we want to express our personalities with music and we'd rather not do it at the Bobart - Zen D.J. contest, thank noo. Where: at the KUOI Studio, stupid. We won't give out our pasture address - just suffice it to say look for two pink flamingos out front. Why: God doesn't even know. How: sometimes with 10 toes on the floor, occasionally with bungee cords but usually - any way we can." The Sacred Cows, 1 - 3 Mondays.

Well hey everybody! Hope our Spring program guide helps familiarize you with KUOI. As PR/Adv. Coordinator I design the ads, work on fundraisers and get this book together for ya. It's really fun working here with the KUOI staff and the Arg. Things are really happening here and we would enjoy to hear your views and ideas. So stay tuned - KUOI has alternative listening for all your musical tastes.

SUNDAYS ARE SPECIAL

Sundays are special on KUOI. We feel confident that our Sunday programming is capable of pleasing the grumpiest of KUOI critics. Beginning at 6 with three hours of fine jazz with Paul Wuthrich, followed by "K" at 9 with her journey through the past, playing the music from the 60's and 70's that was at the heart of those dynamic decades. Neal Robinson is next at 12 noon with 90 minutes of the finest in new rock followed by another 90 minutes of the best progressive jazz being produced. Music from the 21st Century with Andy Davie begins at 3. The future así electronic and Andy is already there. At 6 Steve Hansen plays 2 hours of new age and folk music that will relax the entire family. Kay Moore is next at 8 with 2 hours of folk music from around the world. Then at 10 Leigh Robartes sits in and plays a variety of rock, progressive and jazz that will help you ease into the deep sleep you deserve on a Sunday night. Sundays are special. Give us a listen.
